

RX10H Windows Healthcare Tablet

RUGGED MOBILITY, DESIGNED WITH CARE.

The RX10H Windows Healthcare Tablet is the ultimate tool for medical professionals. From its antimicrobial surface and 10.1" LumiBond® display to the limitless battery life and class-leading support, the RX10H sets new standards in patient care.

Meets the Demands Of Day-to-Day Patient Care.

The RX10H's thin, ergonomic design and no-slip grip make it comfortable to carry through an entire work shift. The broad, contoured handle hangs easily from any hook, and the body is built to withstand continuous sanitation for long lasting durability.

Antimicrobial Surface Coating.

The RX10H's exterior is made with an antimicrobial material that is hostile to pathogens and helps prevent the spread of infection.

Sanitize Without Wear & Tear.

Built to handle constant cleaning from major sanitizing agents & certified safe from electrostatic discharge.

Hardened-Armor Design.

Proprietary polymer & double injection technology deliver uncompromised durability & impact resistance.

Built To Last. Powered To Perform.

With incredible strength and resilience, the RX10H is engineered to keep working for as long as you do, regardless of any drops, tumbles or exposure to hazardous liquids.

Durable Certified.

The RX10H is rigorously field-tested and MIL-STD810G & IP65 Certified by an independent testing lab to meet or exceed test-rating criteria for shocks, falls, fluid spills, vibrations and dust.

Power You Can Depend On

The RX10H offers potentially limitless battery life. Getac's LifeSupport™ battery system allows you to swap new batteries in and out without shutting down. When it's time to recharge, the special adapter is certified safe to use in hospital environments.

Vibrant 10.1" Full HD Touch Display.

Closely examine charts, parse out fine details and read patient information in exceptionally high clarity, color and readability, at an extreme 170° viewing angle.

LumiBond® 2.0: Glove-Sensitive, Responsive & Resilient.

The RX10H display offers glove-sensitive multi-touch functionality with greater readability and sensitivity without compromising durability. By bonding the glass with the touch panel and LCD, Getac LumiBond® technology creates a single pane that's more durable, readable and works while wearing gloves.
